

Welcome to Kapow!

Kapow Kids Club is an amazing evening of non-stop fun for all children in School Years 1 to 6.

During the evening we will have team games, songs, prizes, story and so much more. Birthdays will be celebrated and Kapow leaders might get custard pie'd. We all get to have fun. At the end of the evening we have a Bible based story that teaches our young people great values for life.

There will be two teams – Red Team and Blue Team. Points will be won for winning games, best dancing, best behaviour and more. And ... and this is very exciting, children are welcome to bring along 1p and 2p's (No obligation and copper coins only) to raise money for a school in Nsobe Community School in Zambia, and the team with the most in their pot at the end will be gunging a Head Teacher from one of the Caldicot Primary schools!!!! Who will it be?? Don't know yet ... but it will be great fun!

So, the treasure chest is packed with goodies and the tuck shop is stocked ready to go.

What a great way to start your weekend!

When you arrive:

If previously filled in a consent form then give your name at the table on the left, pay 50p for tuck and have an ink stamp on your hand (optional), then go in and have fun!

If your parent or legal guardian needs to fill in a consent form, go to the table on the right where forms and pen are available.

When you leave:

Parents give child's name, a KAPOW! Leader will call them; have a bag of sweets and KAPOW! Phrase Card and we'll see you next week!!

- Free entry
- Every child must have a consent form completed and handed in
- Flashing lights used during the evening and smoke machine used once before children arrive
- Maximum of 50p can be spent in the tuck shop at the end of the evening
- Mobile phones will not be allowed
- All children must be collected by their parent/responsible adult at the end of the evening

Adults – any questions or concerns please get in touch.

Can't wait to see you

The Kapow Team!!
